HIGHLIGHTED GRANTS

Warrior Words: Works to reintegrate veterans into their communities through a monologue-writing workshop and discussion in four North Dakota cities.

“Very moving evening. Good for us to hear and healing for the participants.”

Our People/Places/Stories -

Dispatches from the Oil Patch: Allows residences of the Bakken the ability to share and preserve their stories under the guidance of professional writers.

“Loved the choice readings. Instructor was so kind, empathetic, and motivating. She directed well, diverted at poignant times, and made individuals feel heard. Grateful for the feedback and experience.”

Bill of Rights: Several organizations statewide have been awarded the pop-up exhibit. Organizations displayed the exhibits from Dec. 15, 2016 through Dec. 31, 2016 at minimum, and are encouraged to create public programs about the Bill of Rights and their continuing importance today.
